Adventure, a new stage adaptation of the popular DreamWorks animated motion picture.

Madagascar: A Musical Adventure is written by Kevin Del Aguila, directed and choreographed by Jerry Jay Cranford with musical direction by Anthony T. Edwards, and will be performed live on The Coterie's stage June 14 – August 7, 2016.

ABOUT THE PLAY

Receiving its world premiere on stage this summer at The Coterie, Madagascar: A Musical Adventure follows the hilarious antics of Alex the lion, Marty the zebra, Gloria the hippo, and Melman the giraffe on their madcap journey from New York's Central Park Zoo to the beaches of Madagascar. With ten memorable new songs added to a pop favorite from the original score, their journey goes from the wilderness to just plain wild when they are tracked by Skipper and his always plotting penguins, and then learn to "Move it! Move it!" from King Julian and his loyal lemur subjects. Brought vividly to life on stage by imaginative sets, colorful costumes, and a high-energy, dance-filled production, Madagascar: A Musical Adventure is a musical celebration of friendship and the perfect indoor escape for any family's summer outing.

Bringing together all the crack-a-lackin' friends from Madagascar is a charming and fast-paced story, produced by special arrangement with Music Theatre International (MTIShows.com), written by Kevin Aguila, who is the Emmy Award-winning writer of the animated PBS show "Peg + Cat", the book-writer of the hit Off-Broadway musical Alter Boyz (New York Outer Critics Circle Award, Lucille Lortel and Drama Desk Award nominations), and recipient of the Heideman Award for his play The Greekest of Tragedies (Actors Theatre of Louisville). Original music for Madagascar: A Musical Adventure was created by George Noriega & Joel Someillan, who for eight years have worked as the production and writing team known as Jilipop, a children's entertainment production company that has developed music for "Dora the Explorer" and "Go Diego Go," as well as many other projects for Nickelodeon TV and Film and Broadway Across America. The Coterie's production of Madagascar: A Musical Adventure will be directed by Jerry Jay Cranford, who returns after having directed last summer's A Year With Frog and Toad and previously appeared in and choreographed The Coterie's theatre for young audiences premiere of Chitty Chitty Bang Bang. A four year veteran playing the Genie in Disneyland's stage musical Aladdin, Cranford was also a long-time cast member of the Broadway production and tour of Les Misérables.

Madagascar: A Musical Adventure will run approximately 70 minutes with no intermission and

The theatre for young audiences adaptation of Madagascar – A Musical Adventure is a product of The Coterie's Lab for New Family Musicals, which works with Broadway authors, composers, and publishers to transform this and other Broadway favorites to a scale and running time suitable for family theatre. The Coterie's Lab for New Family Musicals was created in 2004, by Producing Artistic Director Jeff Church. The program has successfully helped accomplished Broadway composers find their way into the field of young audiences with such shows as Chitty Chitty Bang Bang, Shrek the Musical, Seussical, and The Happy Elf, all of which lived on through subsequent productions nationwide. The Coterie assists in the creation of musicals for family audiences by reviewing the script and assisting in its adaptation, working hand-in-hand with the Broadway creators during rehearsals and previews, and providing a company highly responsive to changes and developments.
